February 5, 2016 Meeting

Lots of great recognitions at the meeting on February 5. First, Emily Lowe, a senior at Liberty Christian Academy was recognized as ACE student of the month. Emily is a cancer survivor, has remained in school during her treatments, and is on track to graduate and attend Liberty University.

Club Committee Chairman Mike Spencer (R) presents the certificate to Emily Lowe (L).

Next, Club Treasurer, Joan Silver was presented the District Award for Outstanding Club Treasurer.

Joan is presented her award by Club President Barry Stephens.

Pancake Jamboree Recognitions at February 5 Meeting

A number of people and companies were recognized for their support of the Pancake Jamboree. Pancake Jamboree Chairman for Life Mike Staley presented the awards on behalf of the club.

Bert Dodson (L) of Dodson Bro's Exterminating was recognized for allowing the club to use a billboard he owns to advertise the event and being one our regular Celebrity Cooks.

Tony McBride (L) of McBride Sign was recognized for storing all the grills, helping with cleaning them prior to the event, and putting up the sign on the Dodson Bro's billboard.

Delbert Beasley (C) and BJ Leebrick (L) of Beasley Disposal were recognized for providing the dumpster and placing it outside the Armory for use during the day.

The most important recognition was the efforts of Club Jamboree Chairman for Life Mike Staley. Mike has worked tirelessly for three years as the lead club member planning and carrying out the event. Mike (R) is presented a plaque by President Stephens (L). Thanks Mike for all you do to make the Jamboree successful!
